What are the special territories of members of the European Economic Area (EEA)?
The special territories of members of the European Economic Area (EEA) are the 32 special territories of EU member states and EFTA member states which, for historical, geographical, or political reasons, enjoy special status within or outside the European Union and the European Free Trade Association.

What is the French Southern Territories?
The territory is sometimes referred to as the French Southern Lands (French: Terres australes françaises) or the French Southern Territories,usually to emphasize non-recognition of French sovereignty over Adélie Land as part of the Antarctic Treaty System. The entire territory has no known permanently settled inhabitants.

Are there trees in the French Southern Lands?
Because of their isolation and subpolar location,the French Southern Lands are relatively depauperate of vegetation,with both Saint-Paul and Crozet having no native tree or shrub species. However,eight of the 36 higher plant species are endemic.

What are the French Southern & Antarctic Lands?
The French Southern and Antarctic Lands are an overseas territory of Francethat consist of the following: Adélie Land (Terre Adélie): This is the French claim on the continent of Antarctica. Crozet Islands (Îles Crozet): A group of islands in the southern Indian Ocean,located south of Madagascar.

Are the Faroe Islands part of the Schengen Area?
The Faroe Islands are not part of the Schengen Area,and Schengen visas are not valid. However,the islands are part of the Nordic Passport Union and the Schengen Agreement provides that travellers passing between the islands and the Schengen Area are not to be treated as passing the external frontier of the Area.
