Are CIGS solar panels better than monocrystalline solar panels?

Monocrystalline panels offer higher efficiency and cost-effectiveness, suitable for most users. On the other hand, CIGS panels provide unmatched flexibility, durability, and shading tolerance, perfect for versatile installations. Renogy New CIGS Solar Panel vs Flexible Monocrystalline Solar Panel: Which Fits Your Needs Best?

What are CIGS thin-film solar panels?

CIGS thin-film solar panels can be designed as rigid or flexible modules, to be used in traditional PV installations on scales that go from residential up to utility ones. The great performance in different lighting and extreme temperatures, makes these modules perform better than traditional technologies.

Are CIGS solar panels better than bifacial solar panels?

CIGS solar cells can perform better thanks to better adaptation in diffuse light locations and a low-temperature coefficient of $-0.36\%/^{\circ}\text{C}$, which reduces power losses in extreme climate locations. Bifacial CIGS solar panels can be manufactured, to take advantage of the albedo resource.
